Commissioner for Patents
P.O. Box 1450
Alexandria, VA 22313-1450

Dear Sir:

I, Frank Friedland, the Applicant in the above-identified patent application, declare as follows:

1. That sometime prior to September 11, 2002, Applicant conceived and reduced to practice the Head Massager as disclosed and claimed in the above-identified patent application. Exhibit A includes a notarized statement from the Applicant indicating the date of invention, prior to September 11, 2002;

2. That the Head Massager conceived and reduced to practice prior to September 11, 2002 included a bundle of malleable rods having a top member within which the top end of the bundle of rods is fixed and the rods are free at the bottom end of the bundle. A handle includes a top half and a bottom half articulated together, the bottom half defining a lower recess receiving the top member fixed therein. A motor has an output shaft on which is eccentrically mounted a magnet mounted in the bottom half with the eccentrically mounted magnet lying in juxtaposition to but spaced from the top member. A battery receiving plate is mounted in the bottom half and an electrical circuit couples the battery receiving plate and motor. A switch is mounted in the bottom half and a manually operable switch actuator mounted in the top half for actuating the switch enables power to be supplied to the motor when batteries are mounted on the battery receiving plate;

3. That Applicant produced or had produced drawings of the Head Massager prior to September 11, 2002 as evidenced by Exhibit B attached hereto. Exhibit B includes drawings and sketches, produced prior to September 11, 2002 illustrating the Head Massager;

4. That during the inventive process and on a confidential basis Applicant disclosed the concept to Abel Unlimited Inc., for the intended purpose of determining the best price and terms for manufacture of the Head Massager. A copy of the confirmation of Applicant's disclosure to Abel Unlimited prior to September 11, 2002 and a copy of a declaration from Abel Unlimited, stating that the pictures of the Head Massager were received prior to September 11, 2002 for the purpose of determining the best price and terms for manufacture is attached as Exhibit C;

5. That an experimental prototype was produced by Shanghai Foresighter Electronics, Co., having a place of business at No. 2 Hongqiao Town Road, Shanghai, China, prior to September 11, 2002. A copy of the invoice is attached hereto as Exhibit D; and

6. That the Head Massager was disclosed on Applicant's web site prior to September 11, 2002, as illustrated in the printout attached hereto in Exhibit E.

The declarant further states that the above statements were made with the knowledge that willful false statements and the like are punishable by fine and/or imprisonment, or both, under Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code, and that any such willful false statement may jeopardize the validity of this application or any patent resulting therefrom.

Subject: Re: Battery Head Massager

Dear Marvin.

From the meeting yesterday please go ahead and get some quotes and detailed drawing to manufacture the Battery Head Massager, I am dealing with Shanghai Foresighters, but feel we should always get some competing quotes, I will call you later,

Regards,

Frank 772-201-3453

To Whom it May concern:

Abel Unlimited is an import/distribution company and has been conducting business for over 15 years in this field.

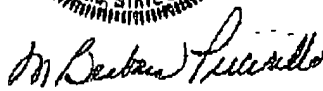

I received a Battery Head Massager picture on [REDACTED] from Mr. Frank Freidland. I received quotes and drawings from manufacturers in China in order to determine the best prices and terms to have been given.

If you need any other information, please contact me.

Sincerely,

Marvin Maltz
